

Art in Public Places
Summer 2008
Schedule of Events

June 1 – Labor Day

Summer of Sculpture: Featuring five large scale bell sculptures by Colorado Artist James G. Moore.

June 25-26

Debbie Bakel, bronze conservator cleans and waxes Vail's bronze sculptures including 10th Mountain Division Memorial, Spirit of the Skier, Rocky Mountain Majesty and The Need to Know. A map showing the locations of these sculptures can be found on artinvail.com and from the Vail Information Booths. If you see Deb working, feel free to ask about bronze conservation.

June 30, 2-4:30 p.m.

Bells and Butterflies: A Celebration of Betty Ford Alpine Gardens 20th Anniversary and the 9th Annual Summer Sculpture Exhibition. Festivities include:

- § Meet the artist James G. Moore and ring the bells
- § Painted Lady Butterfly Launch
- § Bravo's musical petty zoo
- § Jazz Goes to School 101
- § Plein Air Painter compete for the opportunity to exhibit at Vail International Gallery
- § Betty Ford Way Ribbon cutting by Mayor Dick Cleveland

July 27, 4-5:30 p.m.

Public Art Walking Tours. Meet in front of the Ski Museum. Tours end with drinks and discussion at one of Vail's restaurants.

August 3 4-5:30 p.m.

Public Art Walking Tour and Gallery Visit

August 17, 4-5:30 p.m.

Public Art Walking Tour and Gallery Visit

* Andrew Carson's bronze and glass kinetic sculptures will be installed sometime around 4 July, outside Vail's Information Booth. The artist is lending the work to Vail for one year.

For more information please contact Leslie Fordham 479-2344 artinvail.com